Dan + Yvonne have a new kid. I like the facial expressions on infants faces. They seem to be expressing real thoughts, but they change their expression every second. Since I am around adults all the time I think people mean what they express but babies dont mean anything by it. I like the ambiguity.

SAT 2/5/87

This has been a wonderful day for me. Andy cooked a yummy breakfast of pancakes + eggs. Many people were around chatting of this and that. CR came in from points west to make our house that little extra full + breath fun on us all.

We now have a house of 8! Alaina, Nadine, Brewster, Andy, Dave, Jim, Donna, + Julianne. This is critical mass of interesting people that allows spontanious fussion for dinners + backrubs. I like the folks of our house bunches.

I spent the day trotting around toy stores: I bought bendable dinosaurs at the Dino-store, big balloons at childrens workshop, this book and fun envelopes at Joie de Vivre, maps to make fun mail for Alexandra at the map store, music boxes ~~for~~ in Faneuil Hall. All around great day

THERES A PATTERN 9/11/87
HERE. EACH NIGHT (THAT I SPEND IN MY PSUEDOTRANSITORY HOME)
I SEEM TO BE UP WAY PAST MY BEDTIME.

I BLAME EVERYBODY ELSE.

I AM A QUIET, SIMPLE BOY, LOOKING FOR THE OBSCURITY WHICH TRUTH BELIES.
HARK. I HEAR THE COGS OF MY CONSCIENSNESS GRATE CONTUALLY
AS THEY CARESS THE CHANGES IN MY LIFE, AS A BEAVER IN A

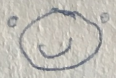
WISHING TO ALL A GOOD NIGHT...

IT WAS LATE & THE LATENESS WAS GOOD.

TOO TIRED. TIRED TWO.



Sunday

Piles of warm folk on a newly desecrated futon. I think I can talk of sex about as long as I can discuss food.

If I didn't have a brain, I could smell + touch + be happy all the time. I think a cow's life is like this. As it is I just make theories.

"New" is good in its own right; some new things are enduring. I think this house is one of them. Yippie Alaina's room is done. She's doing it up. She's given me rugs to use in my room. Alaina + Julianne + I are going to share clothes. Suddenly ~~three~~ people have ~~e~~ tripled wardrobes.

Julianne + I are going to read Catch 22 to each other. ~~S~~ Saw 2nd ½ of the movie tonite at MIT. Brewster, Andy Julianne + I. J+I had not read it by. Had tried but not been able to get into it. She read too fast + got lost. I read too slow + got bored. So we'll try it together.

I have noticed. It seems Brewster Julianne + I are each involved in relationships that are more occasional, weekend mostly, not all consuming. Nice, relaxing, affirming. New to me to get sustenance at home mostly, through each other.

Love + peace (lots)

Visiting
This house
Has variety.
Is it the spice of life?

On the continuum of 19-33,
where do you fall?

I fall down, of course.

All families:

1- are divided into 3 parts
- a mother
- b father
- c child(ren)

2- Different stories unravel at different speeds in families.

3- Hurt each other knowingly and unknowingly

4 Have different definitions of fighting. Some mild altercations mean to some that the world is falling apart. For others broken windows and bones

You should never make sweeping generalizations.

HEY DONNA NICE TO HAVE YOU HERE

Even if you do just sit and write off families ;)

Ode to Earl

I miss you Earl.

You were the nicest and the Bestest cat I ever knew

Your lack of meows when I came home or wanted to go to sleep, your lack of puking on the rug in the night,
your lack of vet-bills...

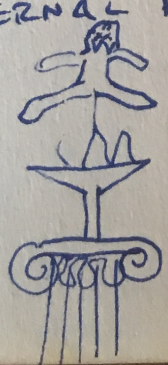
All cats should be as dead as you.

I hope you are in the great cat heaven in the sky chatting with the other dead cats.

I'll miss crushing your head in car doors,
freezing your paws in liquid nitrogen,
talking dirty behind your back.

You make me feel good about myself.

THAT'S TOUCHING. PERHAPS WE SHOULD ERECT AN ETERNAL FLAME MEMORIAL.



NEVER!

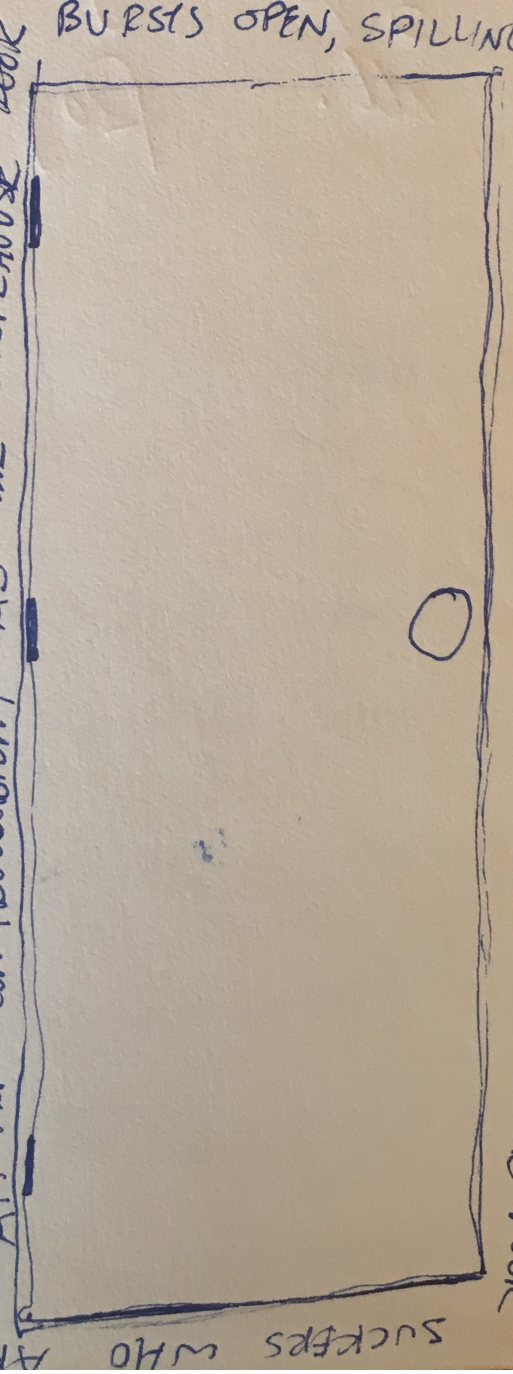
GOOD POINT NADINE. WASTE. ABOUNDS ONE TIME I WON DER WHAT WILL HAPPEN IN THE FU TURE WITH THE THOUGHTLESSNESS OF THE PRESENT. IT TAKES SO LITTLE TIME TO CUT DOWN A TREE. IT TAKES SO LITTLE TIME TO HAVE A BABY, BUILD A BOMB, POLLUTE A RIVER, STORE SOME WASTE. WE KEEP LEARNING THESE BIG GAPING SPACES IN THE NOTEBOOK ? STORE SOME WASTE. STORE SOME WASTE. STORE SOME WASTE.

I heard 2 cats fighting tonight as I walked home,

"Earl? Earl?!" I called. He didn't answer - but then, he never did.

Oh Earl.

* A PACKED STOREHOUSE OF WASTED, PREMATURE APOLIGIZATION.



10/1/87 Pre Thanks for dinner tonite, folks. Sorry I missed Earl. This reminds me of my house in Weston which we called The Woodpile. Ah but that was 3 years ago. Love to you all.

Roger Frye

If a random 90% of all humans disappeared tonight what would happen?

Would people mourn for years?
Would the economic system collapse?
Would people start fighting?
Would people get insanning?
Would anybody care?
Many houses would be empty. Many children would be left without parents
All companies would lose their best, key people and their worst, nastiest people. And some middlers.
In a year or two would NYC have 8 million people in it?
Would college tuitions go down?
Would grad school scholarships be easier to get?
Would we find God?
Would I find my missing socks?
Would we all be assured social security?
Would I get a 4.0 if my roomate was one of them?
Would the 10% fight among themselves?
Would all of them eat?

Spaghetti on the ceiling! Is that a snack for the flies? Or something for when you're crawling along the ceiling on your hands and knees. Yeah. That's more likely.

I'm not short! I'm 5 feet tall!

No matter how you slice it, it comes up peanuts.

The big recent change is our coupling off. Julianne + Neils live in the front room. Except for the kitchen it is a complete apartment. They have made a nice work space with 2 computers, 2 phones, TV, 2 desks couch, piano, and chairs.

Andy + Heidi now live in the master bedroom + I live in the room next to it. Alaina + I are sharing a "work space" on the 3rd floor.

"Work space" Yuck. What happened to "Den" or "study"? 80's-speak.

We dont have group dinners But we have frequent small dinners. The karma is pretty calm but not ~~ecstatic~~ ecstatic.

Also, we had no turnover this last summer. This was a change.

without the horrible interview process we did not disagree about the "philosophy" of the house.

On the other hand, we didn't have a wash of house enthusiasm after it was all over.

For me, I have changed in my view of group property. I used to think everything should be owned cooperatively and used with respect and cooperatively. This drove andy nuts.

Now I believe in private ownership and cooperative use. That way someone can legitimately establish rules and be responsible. If others dont like the rule, then they can get their own.

This does not work with things that have a short life. Hmm.
